Background

MIPA is a non-profit independent research institution based in Rabat, Morocco. Founded by a group of transdisciplinary researchers, MIPA’s mission is to produce systematic and in-depth analysis of relevant policy issues that lead to new and innovative ideas for solving some of the most pressing issues relating to democracy.

The Project “Policy Dialogues” has the objective of opening the civic space for an informed discussion between relevant stakeholders to allow the development of concrete and applicable policy proposals to be presented in the framework of Morocco’s elections of 2021 and beyond. Notably, the project foresees the enhancement of policy advocacy in Morocco as a dynamic to bring about concrete and positive change. In the framework of this project, a series of activities (training, policy dialogues and the publication of various policy papers) are deemed to mainstream policy advocacy as a strategy to meaningfully engage in the dialogue with decision-makers and thus contribute to the amelioration of Morocco’s society.
